DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed on December 22, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant traverses the rejection of claims 20-24 and 35-42 by identifying "a first strobe signal" and "a second strobe signal," recited in the claims, as "STROBE" and "D_STROBE" illustrated in Fig.4 as an exemplary embodiment, thereby alleging the enablement of the claimed invention. However, the drawing (Fig.4) clearly shows that a skew between "DATA" and "D_STROBE," (i.e., "a first strobe signal") is detected at Quadrature Detector 22 and the timing relation between "DATA" and "D-STROBE" is regulated via "Delay Chain (30). Note that a skew between the DATA and the STROBE is not detected. Therefore, the rejection of the above-identified claims stands, as set forth below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 20-24 and 35-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Claims 20 and 35 define a method to generate a train signal representing a skew between "a data bit signal" and "a first strobe signal," and to regulate a timing relationship between the data signal and “a second strobe signal.” Emphasis added. However, according to the specification, it appears that a skew correction signal from comparing a data bit signal one particular strobe signal regulates only the timing between the data bit and the particular strobe signal, not a timing between the data bit and another strobe signal. Page 7 of the specification at lines 5-7 describes an embodiment where “each of which [multiple strobe signals] is associated with one of the data lines 23 and may be used to compensate a different skew.” There is found no other teaching that one strobe signal is related to another strobe signal for correction of skew. Therefore, the subject matter of claims 20 and 35 are considered as failing to make and/or use the invention.

Claims 21-24 and 36-42 are rejected for the same reason as they dependent from rejected base claims respectively.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 25-28, 43-47 are allowed.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

Art Unit: 2634

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
